ACAC 2011-12 CROSS COUNTRY RUNNING COACHES OF THE YEAR

The Alberta Colleges Athletic Conference is pleased to announce our 2011-12 Cross Country Running Coaches of the Year as selected by their ACAC Coaching peers.

Drew Carver and Linda Miller Grant MacEwan University

MacEwan University coaches Drew Carver and Linda Miller have been named the Alberta Colleges Athletic Conference Coaches of the Year. The pair guided their men's team to their first ever ACAC Championship title and the women to a silver medal finish this past weekend.

"Drew and Linda work extremely hard at developing our program and this accolade is a demonstration of their commitment as their athletes have improved tremendously under their leadership," Ken Schildroth, Manager of Athletics said of the recognition. "The team has successfully made the transition into high performance athletes, and under their leadership they have embodied what MacEwan University student athletes are embracing academics, community and performance."

At the ACAC championships were hosted by SAIT on October 29th. The team is currently preparing for the national championships taking place on November 12th at Thompson Rivers University, Kamloops, British Columbia.

Congratulations Drew and Linda!
